24. The proposer and seconder must each certify to a personal knowledge of the candidate, and forward the requisite information as to his eligibility by letter to the Board of Governors. In case such letters shall not have been received before the first meeting, at which the name of the candidate could be balloted for, it shall be the duty of the Corresponding Secretary to notify the member or members from whom such letters are due of this requirement; and if such letter or letters shall not have been received before the next regular meeting of the Board of Governors, the name of such candidate shall be deemed to have been withdrawn. Candidates must be personally known to some members of the Board of Governors.

Members who shall be elected subsequent to July 1 in any year, shall be required to pay to the Treasurer his entrance fee together with one-half the annual dues, which sum shall secure his membership to the first day of the following January.

28. No elected member shall be permitted to enjoy any of the privileges or benefits of the Club until his entrance fees and dues shall have been paid and he shall have signed the roll book.

29. If a member elect does not qualify within thirty days after the notification of his election, such election shall be void unless his time for payment shall be extended by the Board of Governors.

RESIGNATIONS

30. All resignations must be made in writing to the Corresponding Secretary or the Treasurer; and if the member so resigning be in good standing, such resignation must be accepted, but no resignation (except it be called for by the Board of Governors) shall be accepted from any member who shall in any way be indebted to the Club; and his indebtedness shall be held to include dues for the year in which the resignation is offered.

ENTRANCE FEES AND DUES

31. The dues shall be payable annually, in advance, on the first day of January in each year, but members elected after July 1 in each year shall be required to pay only one-half the yearly dues for the remainder of that fiscal year.

32. On the first day of April, the names of members in arrears for dues shall be posted on the Club bulletin.

33. If a member remains two months in arrears in the payment of his dues, it shall become the duty of the Treasurer to demand payment from him and call his attention to such arrears and demand payment thereof. Should this demand not be complied with within one month, the Board of Governors shall have power to suspend him or to strike his name from the roll of members, as the Board, in the exercise of its judgment and discretion, may deem proper.

34. The annual dues of Active members shall be ten ($10) dollars; of Associate members fifteen ($15) dollars, and of Lay members twenty-five ($25) dollars.

35. Active members shall pay an entrance fee of ten ($10) dollars, Associate members shall pay an entrance fee of fifteen ($15) dollars, Lay members shall pay an entrance fee of twenty-five ($25) dollars.

SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION

36. Whenever forfeiture of membership shall have been imposed on a delinquent member, upon his giving satisfactory explanation for the delinquency, and upon his written application for reinstatement, made within three months from the date of such forfeiture, the Board of Governors may remit the penalty to which he was subjected, and restore him to membership on such terms as they shall deem just and proper. No reinstated member, however, shall be permitted to avail himself of the privileges of the Club until he shall have complied with the terms prescribed.

FISCAL YEAR

37. The fiscal year of The Friars shall begin on the first day of January in each year.

ADDRESSES AND NOTICES

38. A register shall be kept in the office of the Club, in which a member shall record his name and address, and notice of any change must be sent promptly to the Corresponding Secretary.

39. Members absent from the City of New York are required to furnish for entry in the register the address to which they wish their bulletins and correspondence sent, and also, if possible, the period for which such entry is to hold good. No complaint of mis-direction or irregularity, however, in the transmission of notices or leters will be entertained unless the provisions herein are complied with.

40. Any member failing to record such change or send such notice shall be deemed to have waived all claim to official notices. The last address on the register shall always be regarded as the proper one, and notices sent thereto shall be considered as legally forwarded, and a compliance with all requirements of the Club to give any notice.

IN MEMORIAM

41. It shall be the custom at all annual meetings to have some brief and appropriate expression regarding The Friars who have gone beyond and whose life's advance work has left their memory a living thought with all Friars. The Abbot shall appoint a Friar, who shall voice the thought and sympathy of the Friars on this occasion, and the Corresponding Secretary shall send to the relatives a note of this remembrance.

SUSPENSION AND AMENDMENT

42. Any By-Law may be suspended by the Board of Governors at any meeting by the unanimous consent of the Board. No By-Law shall be amended, altered or annulled without notice of such proposed action having been given at a previous meeting of the Board of Governors, and no such amendment, alteration or annulment to the By-Laws shall be had unless nine of the members present of the Board of Governors shall vote therefor.

43. Should any twenty-five or more members in good standing recommend in writing to the Board of Governors any alteration or addition to, or annulment of any By-Law or Rules, and should the Board of Governors, after ten days' notice, refuse to take such action, a special meeting of the Club shall be called, as provided in Article III., Sec. 3, of the Constitution, at which meeting the action of the Board of Governors may be overruled by a two-thirds vote.

EFFECT

44. These By-Laws shall be in effect on and after Nov. 29, 1907.

HOUSE RULES.

I. The Friary shall be opened at 9 o'clock A. M. and shall be closed at 2 o'clock A. M., except on evenings when gatherings or other meetings of the Club are held. The time of closing the Friary on evenings when gatherings or other meetings of the Club are held shall be decided by The Abbot, or, in his absence, by the officer presiding at the gathering or the meeting.

II. Meals or beverages will be served in the Friary only at the tables especially assigned by the House Committee for that purpose, except on the occasions of gatherings or other meetings of the Club. All meals and beverages are to be paid for in cash at the time of their purchase. No guest shall be permitted to pay for meals or beverages in the Friary unless he holds a visitor's card.

III. Betting, or the playing of cards, pool, or any game for a wager of money, is strictly prohibited in the Friary.

IV. No stranger not entitled to the privileges of the Club may enter the Friary except on the invitation of a Friar; nor shall he remain in the Friary in the absence of the Friar introducing him.

V. The name and the residence of every guest must be inscribed in the Guest Book, in the handwriting of the member introducing him, on entering the Friary.

VI. A Friar may introduce without card, for one day only, any gentleman residing in the City of New York, whose name must be entered on the Guest Book, as before provided; but no resident of the City of New York can be introduced more than once within thirty days. The privileges of the Friary for two weeks only may be extended to any gentleman residing beyond the limits of the City of New York, upon application by a Friar to The Abbot, Dean, or Secretary, for a card, which must be signed by the officer issuing it and one other member of the Board of Governors. The officer issuing such card shall promptly notify the Secretary of the date of issue and the name of the guest, and this information shall be posted weekly by the Secretary on the bulletin board. A guest so introduced shall not be entitled to the privileges of the Friary the second time until a period of three months has elapsed. The issuance of a card to any person does not entitle the holder to the privilege of introducing a stranger into the Friary. Friars introducing guests shall be responsible for them.

VII. No book, journal, paper, picture, statue, or other work of art, nor any article of any kind, the property of the Friars, shall be taken from the Friary under any pretense whatever. A Friar shall be liable for any damage to the property of the Friars caused either by himself or a guest introduced by him.

VIII. No person shall bring a dog into the Friary.

IX. No boisterous or unbecoming conduct on the part of any Friar or guest shall be permitted in the Friary; nor shall any playing upon musical instruments or singing at unseasonable hours be allowed. It shall be the duty of any officer or member of the House Committee when he happens to be present to notify any person who shall violate this rule, and to cause such offensive demonstration, noise or disturbance to cease.

X. The privileges of the Friary shall not be extended to minors under eighteen years of age.

XI. A complete list of the members, officers and committees shall be kept posted in the Friary, and such list shall be corrected by the Secretary from time to time as changes occur.

XII. No Friar shall give any gratuity to any servant or employee of the Club.

XIII. No member while under suspension from the Friars for any cause shall be brought into the Friary as a guest by another member.

XIV. Any member of the House Committee is authorized, in the event of conduct offensive to the Club, on the part of any Friar, to order his exclusion from the Friary until the matter can be acted upon by the Board of Governors.

XV. The Treasurer is authorized to post upon the bulletin board the amount and nature of any indebtedness of any Friar to the Club one month after such amount is due. At the same time he will report to the Board of Governors the same information for action.

XVI. All complaints and suggestions must be made in writing to the House Committee, and deposited in a box provided for that purpose, in the entrance hall. Complaints made verbally to members of the Committee will, under no circumstances, be noticed.
